

Invitation to webinar How to Solar Pump?

Thursday, October 6th 2022, 13:00 - 14:00 GMT*, 15:00 - 16:00 CET**
on Zoom

Learn the basics, challenges and opportunities of water pumping with solar energy at the webinar on how to solar pump. Experts with many years of professional experience will guide you through the theory and practical examples.

Program

Thursday, October 6th 2022

13:00 GMT* / 15:00 CET**

Welcome

Background on Photovoltaic and Pumps

Prof. Christof Biba, Partner and Professor,
Institute for Solar Technologies SPF-OST, www.spf.ch

13:20 GMT* / 15:20 CET**

Questions and Discussion

13:30 GMT* / 15:30 CET**

Solar pumping products and their opportunities and challenges in application

Karin Jeanneret, CEO
ennos ag, www.ennos.ch

13:50 GMT* / 15:50 CET**

Questions and Discussion

14:00 GMT* / 16:00 CET**

End

*GMT: Greenwich Mean Time (Cote d'Ivoire, Ghana, Liberia, Benin +1 h, Cameroon +1 h, etc.)
**CET: Central European Time (South Africa, Switzerland, etc.)

Registration

until Wednesday, October 5th, 2022
via registration form
Participation is free of charge.

Location

Online via Zoom
After registration you will receive the zoom link.

Further information

NEWAL - Network for Water & Life
www.newal.ch
Rias Stalder, rias.stalder@ost.ch
Phone +41 58 257 43 92

Christof Biba is a professor at the Eastern Switzerland University of Applied Sciences (OST) in Rapperswil. He lectures within the study program "Renewable energies and environmental engineering" and is associated to the Institute for Solar Technology SPF as head of the PV group. Christof originally completed an apprenticeship as a carpenter, later graduated in physics and worked successfully in the solar technology industry for more than 20 years.

Karin Jeanneret Vezzini is CEO and Board of Directors at ennos AG, is Board Of Directors at Seelamdheim AG and runs the law firm Jeanneret. Karin co-founded ennos AG in 2006, which today successfully sells solar pumps worldwide. Karin holds a Master in Business Law and has worked for a major bank during her career.

